BATES COLLEGE

Lewiston, Maine

"The evil that men do lives after them,
The good is oft interred with their bones."

If this were true, then Jim should have no monument, no remembrance, nor could he leave a "vestige of his life" for "us, the living." No evil was ever known to emanate from Jim, and the good that he imparted to all who knew him, if "interred," would overflow his resting place. It is that simple.

In dedicating this humble chronicle of the class of 1950 to Jim Dempsey, it is sincerely hoped that some expression of the mutual bond of affection which still exists between him and his grieving classmates may be shown.

During his lifetime here at Bates, Jim answered every call to merriment, and heeded every plea to serve. Our throats have gone hoarse at his bidding, he has made our sides ache, from genuine laughter, and finally, through no fault of his own, he has made our cheeks wet with honest tears.

There is no place for histrionics here in this dedication. There is no place for the flowing but empty phrase. This is a place for sincerity—and so sincerely and affectionately we say,

"To Jim—we miss you, boy!"

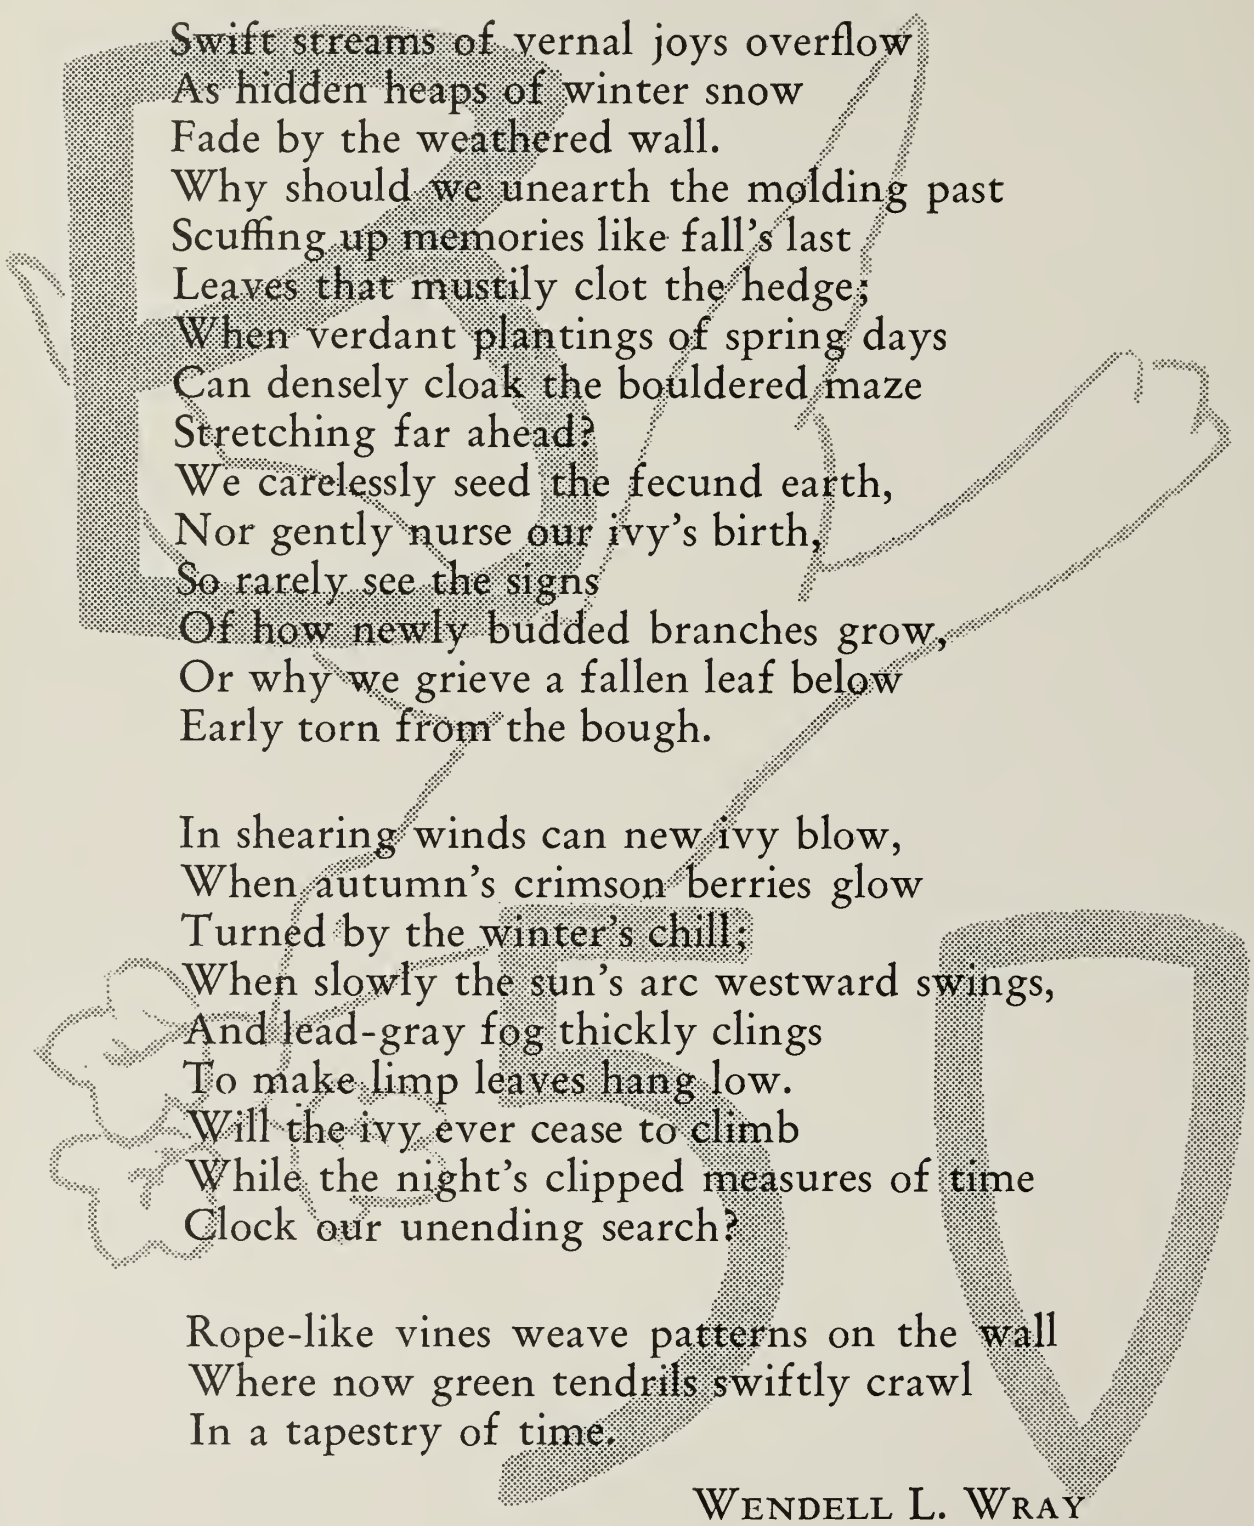
Seniors



Swift streams of vernal joys overflow
As hidden heaps of winter snow
Fade by the weathered wall.
Why should we unearth the molding past
Scuffing up memories like fall's last
Leaves that mustily clot the hedge;
When verdant plantings of spring days
Can densely cloak the bouldered maze
Stretching far ahead?
We carelessly seed the fecund earth,
Nor gently nurse our ivy's birth,
So rarely see the signs
Of how newly budded branches grow,
Or why we grieve a fallen leaf below
Early torn from the bough.

In shearing winds can new ivy blow,
When autumn's crimson berries glow
Turned by the winter's chill;
When slowly the sun's arc westward swings,
And lead-gray fog thickly clings
To make limp leaves hang low.
Will the ivy ever cease to climb
While the night's clipped measures of time
Clock our unending search?

Rope-like vines weave patterns on the wall
Where now green tendrils swiftly crawl
In a tapestry of time.

Class History

First acquaintances . . . And then Stanton Ride, our first class outing . . . Three-legged race . . . "Give us a 'B' " . . . "Come as you are"—more fun . . . History repeats itself . . . former Bates sons 'n' daughters.

Sophs at last . . . Welcome sight anytime! . . . first long Thanksgiving vacation . . . "Cup o' coffee, Mike" . . . Each fair co-ed . . . Concert Batesina . . . Band—old look . . . new look—women added . . . Mayorality—fun, entertainment, and Margaret Chase . . . (not a candidate) . . . A terrific show—"Importance of Being Earnest" . . . Betty Bates . . . don't envy those poor judges their job . . . Furthering our education at Monmouth.

One dance we all turned out to . . . Studying for exams? . . . Libe got its face lifted . . . Sí, Señorita. It's the Spanish Fiesta . . . English and Bates debate . . . grace, balance, talent . . . wish I were in Dixie . . . Easter morn on Mt. Dave—breezy, too . . . The whole gang.

Our Senior year saw the new Commons begun . . . and Rae and Bill did a fine job . . . fireside chats . . . music, discussions, and this one . . . Peter Bertocci . . . Frank, behind the line . . . an unforgetable friend . . . Four years our president and a real football hero. What else? . . . Won't forget Jack Frost's whistle . . . "Late George Apley" cast . . . Off to London . . . proud of you, Chuck . . . Rand shmoos . . . Amalgamation workers . . . if at first . .

Mr. Norton, Director. Left to Right, First Row: G. Grimes, D. Atkins, M. Newton, C. Fales, R. Woodin, R. Briggs, T. Dowling. Second Row: M. Taber, D. Wolfe, E. Loud, N. Wellman, J. Bower, C. Clark, R. Diehl, J. Hurlin, J. Nevers, E. Hubbard, E. Wolfe, M. Solomon. J. Jackson, J. McCurdy, F. Momenthy. Standing: L. Dittrich.

The Orphic Society, under the baton of Mr. Norton for the first time this year, participated in three major musical productions as it does each year: Christmas Vespers, held December 11th in the Chapel by candlelight; the formal Pops Concert in the Alumni Gym, March 24th; and the Spring Concert. With its various appearances Bates enjoyed a range of orchestrated interpretations from the Greek Music to light semi-classical arrangements.

The Football Band, which was present and playing spiritedly at every State Series game, this year had women members for the first time. Bob Cagenello was its able student director through the Fall when the group did a fine job on the field, not to mention its contribution to pre-game parades and rallies.

Choir, present at every Wednesday Chapel service for the singing of the anthem, is one of the best for a group of its size. In performance this year their music included that from the Renaissance to the present, and they joined in presenting vocal selections in the History of Music program.

The Choral Society, also capably directed by Mr. Norton, who came to Bates only this year, contributed to the major musical productions of the year by appearing in Vespers, Pops, and Spring Concert. Christmas carols and appropriate holiday arrangements were sung in the Christmas Vespers, while "Of Thee I Sing" and "Easter Parade" were outstanding in Pops. Mr. Norton was pleased with the excellent soprano and alto sections, and hopes to have Choral Society attempt larger scale choral work in the future.

Debating

In its ninety-third year at Bates

saw representation abroad in

The First National Debate Team of the U. S.

Charles Radcliffe, a Senior and long time debater, was chosen by the Committee on International Debating of the Speech Association of America as one of two men from the United States to represent our country in the First National Debate Team. Chuck was joined here on campus in January by the other member, Oscar Newton, Jr., University of Alabama, in preparation for their debates in England, Scotland, and Wales. Coaching them was Professor Brooks Quimby, '18, who for the fifth time sent Bates Debaters into international debates abroad.

Besides the honor brought to Bates by these men, the college enjoyed the friendship of Oscar Newton, the "gentleman from the South," and was sorry to bid him farewell as he and Chuck left to sail January 28th on the Queen Mary.

Debaters continued their fame again this year under the guidance of well-known Brooks Quimby. Trophies include those won in the Eastern Intercollegiate Debating League, New England Model Congress, National Radio Debate, National Discussion Contest, and the State Tourney of the last two years. The M. I. T. Tourney trophy was received in the Spring.

1950 began the 93rd year of this major activity at Bates, for as early as 1867 debates were held in the college—1896 saw intercollegiate debating—in 1908 Bates entered into the first international debating ever done, when it met Canada—and in 1922 international debating was held with England.

Each year members of the Freshman and Sophomore Debating Teams compete and name the winners of the Freshman and Sophomore Prize Debates.

Outstanding work in intercollegiate debating or oratory is recognized by the honorary forensic society, Delta Sigma Rho.

The Bates Outing Club

Outing Club Board

As usual, and for the 30th consecutive year, the Outing Club knocked itself out providing all sorts of opportunities for outdoor activities for campus groups ranging in size from two or three, to three or four hundred. Every Sunday afternoon during Fall and Spring saw Thorncrag Cabin open and serving refreshments to hikers. More formally planned activities included two mountain climbing trips, one to Bald Face and the other to Bald Pate, as well as three Saturday evening roller skating parties to the rink at the Fairgrounds.

When the snow finally flew, groups of skiers went to Bridgton and Gray where novices and experts alike reported they had all kinds of fun. During the late winter Outing Club ran the first all-campus Square Dance in the Alumni Gym.

No summary of O. C. activities would be complete, of course, without mention of the Annual Winter Carnival. High spots were the Coronation Ball Saturday night and the all-day outing to Arrowhead Lodge on Long Lake in Naples.

The Bates Christian Association, guided by Glenn Kumekawa and Dr. Painter, has again sponsored various campus and community services through the C. A. commissions. This year, a committee, made up of representatives from the denominational groups and the campus at large, has been formed to study the fundamental nature of the organization.

Early in March, the successful conclusion of months of planning by Hugh Penney and his Religious Emphasis Week Committee was enjoyed by all. These four days, packed with inspirational and thought-provoking discussions, passed all too quickly.

Religious Emphasis Week Committee

The Christian Association continues to render services to the campus and community—to provide a medium for growth in understanding through enlightenment and discussion.

Miss Schaeffer

Lights!

Stagecraft

Antigone

Players

The Players started off with a bang, producing John P. Marquand's satire of the proper Bostonian in "The Late George Apley." Norman Card and Norma Smith were starred as the Apley parents who guided their children, Jane Kendall and Robert Hobbs, very "properly" through all their marital troubles.

For their midyear Production a shift from comedy was made in the form of a translation of a modern French adaptation of the Greek tragedy "Antigone." The play concerned itself with the basic rights of man, symbolized by Antigone's (Elsbeth Thomes) struggle against Creon (Robert Hobbs) for the right to bury the desecrated body of her brother. This tragedy was played against an all gray stage, with most of the needed effects gained by skillful use of lights and strategic placing of the actors.

Again in the lighter vein, Miss Schaeffer produced a 17th Century farce by Moliere, "The Imaginary Invalid" for the last play of the year. This play pokes fun at doctors and their hypochondriacal patients. Leading the chase in all the fun were Nancy Kosinski as Toinnette, the extraordinary maid of Monsieur Argon, and the invalid himself, played by Norman Buker. This production featured a very artistic set, bright colored costumes, and was played in the high style of Moliere himself!—Bouquets to Miss Schaeffer and the three casts for a fine year of Robinson Players activities.

The Student Council

The Student Council celebrated its 40th anniversary this year by continuing to secure co-operation in carrying out the general policy of the college, promoting its best interests in all ways, and improving the conditions of student life on the campus. The majority of the work done by the Council is in the last area of its purpose, improvement of the life of the men at Bates. Outstanding issues of the year were Freshman Orientation, Amalgamation, the basketball team, and the question of room assignments for Freshman men. The real value of the Council is that it is a representative means of expressing student opinion.

"Royalty," complete with knights and chivalry, was the theme of the 30th Annual Winter Carnival sponsored by Outing Club February 2nd to 5th. The weatherman co-operated to give plenty of snow for skiing, sculpture and tobogganing, which were followed in the evenings by the Ice Show and Crowning, Song Contest, Open House at Sir Chase's, Variety Show, and the Coronation Ball Saturday night. Hockey, ski meets, snowshoe softball game, Lollipop Race were the events which led up to the all-day outing at Arrowhead Lodge on Sunday, when the tow was used by skiers and those tobogganing, while others skated on the lake or reclined before the fire.

Chapel Vesper Service Sunday evening concluded the scheduled activities of a "Courtly Carnival," which furnished campus-wide enjoyment through four successful days.

"Dixie Dave" Whiting was the honorable Southern Squire who campaigned for Smith Hall (and near neighbors in Sampsonville) and carried the habit of Southern hospitality and diplomacy to the fair college in Maine. Barbequed pork, mint juleps and dashing young "Rhetts" captivated the campus for the campaign's duration.

Bob Hatch is the newest addition to the Bates family this year. As coach of Freshman sports, affable Bob won the plaudits of all with his undefeated football team. His wrestling classes will long remain in our minds, too!

Lloyd Lux

Bill Nason is finishing his fifth year of service for Bates. Men on the teams and in the gym classes will never forget good-natured Bill who always had a joke and a smile for everyone.

Verna Soule

Lloyd Lux is currently completing his Freshman year as Athletic Director here at Bates. Possessed with vast experience, his efficiency in organization will be a great asset to Bates in the years to come.

Bill Nason

Verna Soule handles the secretarial duties in the athletic office. A conscientious and capable worker, Miss Soule is not only one of Bates' staunchest rooters but one of its friendliest and sincerest persons.

Ray Thompson

C. Ray Thompson, a Bates graduate himself, has been head track coach since 1924. Though sorely lacking depth on his squads, mild, easy-going Ray has, nevertheless, turned in a good job.

Football

If we were asked to nominate our most hated opponent for the year 1949, it would certainly have to be the "two platoon system." This institution which has enjoyed overnight success and popularity in our favorite fall sport has largely been the cause of our mediocre season this past year. The larger schools such as Middlebury, University of Massachusetts and Bowdoin simply had too much sheer manpower for the Bobcats who fielded one of the smallest squads in the school's history.

The 1949 football forces of Bates made an unimpressive debut, as the curtain was raised at Walton Field in Auburn against the University of Massachusetts. Trailing by a single touchdown at half-time, the Garnet tired badly in the second half and the result was the short end of a 19-0 score.

The Bobcats went from bad to worse as they suffered their second straight setback a week later at the hands of Middlebury College, 32-7. Nate Boone received the honor of being the first Bates scorer of the year, as he took a 28 yard pass from Norm Parent shifting out of his center slot, and scampered the remaining 20 yards for the tally. Fred Douglas made the conversion.

How "Ducky" Pond did it no one knew but the Bates mentor certainly found the secret during the week following the Middlebury encounter. Led by the versatile Walker Heap and many unsung heroes of the squad, the Garnet returned to Garcelon Field to whip an unbeaten Tufts eleven, thus upsetting all pre-game predictions. It will be a long time indeed before Bates partisans see anything to compare with the scintillating 96 yard touchdown run of Mr. Heap. It was in the closing seconds of the first half that Stan Ladd intercepted a Tufts pass on the Bobcat four, and, after doing some fancy stepping himself, lateralled to Heap who weaved and danced to the 20, broke down the sidelines and with the help of two key blocks by Faulkner and Scott, went all the way for the touchdown. Bates scored again in the fourth period as Heap climaxed a 65 yard march by skirting end for the tally.

Refusing to be shaken or beaten by an early first period score by Northeastern, the Bobcats made it two in a row as they defeated the stunned Huskies, 14-7, at Huntington Field a week later. After falling behind 7-0 in the opening canto, Heap flipped five yards to Dick Scott in the end zone to culminate a 76 yard sustained drive. Heap also converted to knot the score at 7-7. In the final stanza Heap again, seemingly trapped on the Northeastern 40, threw a high arching aerial to Fred Ienello who made a sensational knee-high catch in the end zone for the winning marker. Fred Douglas split the uprights with his conversion and the Cats triumphed, 14-7.

Oops!
Nate Boone looks in dismay as Bowdoin man deflects pass

Brinkerhoff piles up yardage against Maine

Probably none of us will ever forget the first State Series game of the season as Bates, playing in a cold driving rain, tanned the hide of the Maine Black Bears, 6-0, to temporarily gain first place in the Series race. Again it was Heap, after two scoreless periods of play and with the help of some great downfield blocking who broke off tackle, cut to his left and then raced 37 yards for the game's only score.

The Garnet, now riding high on the crest of a three game winning streak, travelled to Whittier Field in Brunswick the following week where a revitalized Bowdoin club battered it into submission by a 19-0 count. Never did the Pondmen look so helpless as they did in this one. It was one of those days when everything went wrong as the air and ground attacks were completely stymied.

In as wild and exciting a gridiron tilt as has even been seen in State Series competition, the Bobcats brought their 1949 campaign to a close by bowing to the Colby Mules, 33-21, on Armistice Day. The win was an important one for Colby as it gave them a tie for the State crown with Bowdoin. Ralph Perry, landing his first starting assignment, was brilliant as he tossed three touchdown passes. One of these came early in the first period as he flipped to Scott; another came later in the period as he hit Walker Heap with a 13 yard bullet. The final Bates score was registered before the half, as Perry jump-passed to Cornforth from two yards out. Fred Douglas booted three successive conversions. The Bates attack was completely throttled in the second half while Colby was tallying its winning touchdowns.

Thus the curtain goes down on another football season. Bates again did not have the best team in the State nor, on the other hand, did it have the worst. But I really wonder whether that was the important thing. Our little college up in Maine, I believe, had something more; it had the will to win, a great coach and undying spirit—the product of sportsmanship for which we here at Bates can be boastingly proud. We reveled in victory, cheered in defeat, and that in itself is a lesson for the whole world to be taught!

Freshman Football

The football season was a highly successful one for the frosh gridmen. Bob Hatch in his first year as Freshman mentor coached his squad to an undefeated, untied campaign. In the Kittens' four contests, they tallied 90 points while limiting their opposition to a meager 21.

Opening their schedule against Bridgton Academy, the frosh put on a strong second half showing to whip the preppers, 20-0. The running of Richie Raia and the defensive work of Al Goddard were especially noteworthy. The following encounter against Huntington turned out to be a thriller as the Kittens had to come from behind in the final period to gain the victory. A pretty aerial from quarterback Dave Harkins to end Charlie Pappas provided the Hatchmen with their margin of triumph.

The frosh took an early lead over Tilton School, were never in serious trouble, and captured the game handily, 19-7, with Raia and Don Barrios accounting for the six-pointers. Completely outrunning, outpassing and outplaying their opponents, the Bobkittens concluded their schedule as they walloped a highly-rated Maine Central Institute team, 39-7, on a muddy, rain-soaked field. Barrios registered three times, once on a sensational 70-yard punt return, Raia twice and "Punchy" Hinds once to lead the scoring parade, while Bill Kerr and Bob Jones shone defensively.

Other key men in the frosh successes were Bob Goldberg, Bruce Morrison, Bill Thomson, Dick Coughlin, Bill Wyman, Emerson Rogers, Bob Diehl and Fred Lebel. Orchids to Bobby Hatch for producing such a fine club on his debut to the coaching ranks.

Basketball

The 1949-50 campaign proved to be only a mediocre one for the Garnet basketeers though lacking none of its customary thrills. Ed Petro, forced to rebuild his club after losing the great Bill Simpson via the graduation route, did well to guide his charges to an 8-12 win-loss record considering his limited amount of material and a rigorous 20 game schedule.

Commencing their campaign against a potent St. Anselms aggregation directly after a Thanksgiving layoff, the Cats played surprisingly fine basketball and battled St. Anselms every inch of the way before succumbing by a 74-67 count. "Slim" Somerville was outstanding with an 18 point effort. Following this, the cagers dropped successive decisions to Maine and Bowdoin by 51-38 and 63-53 counts respectively. Travelling up to Waterville, the Cats upset the proverbial applecart and edged Colby, 60-59, in a thriller. Trailing by 6 points at intermission, Bates, spearheaded by the superb offensive tactics of Larry Quimby and Bob Carpenter, rallied to nip the Mules. Quimby dunked in 23 tallies while "Carp" swished in 18.

New Hampshire next invaded the Alumni Gym and with Quimby clicking for 21 points and "Carp" for 16, the Garnet whipped the Wildcats, 60-53. The hoopsters then departed on their annual "southern" swing. Opening up against mighty Rhode Island Bates played standout ball, pulling up to 58-60 in the third stanza before fading, 86-69. Ralph Perry was brilliant with outside set shooting which accounted for 20 points. Opposing Trinity, Bates was unable to overcome a second half Hilltopper rally and fell by the wayside, 73-69. Bob Carpenter heaved in some breathless set shots good for 21 points while Quimby and Collins contributed handsomely to the Garnet cause with 19 and 15 respectively. Despite a wonderful 23 point effort by Glen Collins, the locals could not cope with the fast-breaking Providence Friars, yielding by a 93-67 score.

Following Christmas vacation, Quimby led the Cats to two quick triumphs over Clark, 57-50, and Gorham State Teachers, 61-52. Meeting Colby in a return engagement, Bates tired badly in the second half and dropped an 80-72 contest featured by fine offensive performances by Quimby and Collins who tallied 26 and 20 counters in that order. After absorbing a 52-35 defeat from Maine, the Petromen next journeyed to Boston Garden to clash with Boston University. Down by 5 points in the closing minutes, the Garnet suddenly caught fire to deadlock the issue at 55-55. In the ensuing overtime session, Bates pushed through 6 points while holding the Terriors scoreless to gain a 61-55 victory. Glen Collins sparked the locals to their exciting win with 19 points.

Professor Ed!

Out of a maze of outstretched arms, it's . . . Quimby!

Fancy capers.

Lee hooks one basketward.

Bates then fell before Tufts, 59-46, and Maine, 67-49. The University of Connecticut was the next to invade Lewiston and Bates gave the Huskies a real run for their money before capitulating, 77-70. In this battle of two fast-breaking clubs, Larry Quimby really showed his spurs, earning the raves of even Uconn with a scintillating 30 point offensive performance and a stellar rebounding job.

With Quimby, Collins and Somerville hitting in double figures, Bates returned to nip Bowdoin, 70-67, in a loose contest and then topped Farmington, 62-59, in a looser contest. After a 62-57 loss to Colby, Bates rode to Bowdoin to ring down the curtain on the season. It was Ed Petro's farewell appearance and the Cats really played their hearts out to win this one for Ed. With twelve men sharing in the point-production, the Garnet soundly thrashed the Polar Bears, 72-54.

1949-50 marked Ed Petro's last year as director of the Bobcat hoop destinies. In his four years at Bates, Ed's squads compiled a commendable 35-31 record for a .530 percentage. During his tenure here

Ed contributed to the development of Maine's all-time basketball immortal, Bill Simpson. He showed himself a fine basketball coach, was well liked and will be sincerely missed by all.

Larry Quimby in his first year of varsity competition headed the Garnet marksmen with a total of 286 points for a 14.3 average. Glen Collins was next in line with 228 points for a 11.4 average. The Bobkittens finished their season with a 9-6 record. Key men in the frosh successes were high scoring Charlie Bucknam, Don Barrios, Bill Thomson, Ken Weiler and Jim Moody.

Lettermen for the year were Dick Scott, "Slim" Somerville and Herb Livingstone, the three graduating Seniors on the squad, Glen Collins, Lee Blackmon, Ralph Perry, Bob Carpenter, "Lefty" Faulkner, Larry Quimby, "Buzz" Harris, Fred Douglas, and manager Joel Price. With but three departing with the Class of 1950, the Garnet hoop prospects for next season seem much brighter indeed!

Up, up and in!

Oh, the futility of it all!

Track

The 1949-50 track season insofar as victories were concerned proved to be a lackluster one.

In the fall Lewiston's Dom Casavant was the shining light for the varsity harriers as he consistently led the Bates finishers to the tape. The red-headed Casavant ended the season by notching 6th place in the state meet at Augusta. Other cross country letter winners were Norm Buker, Dave Cox, "Duke" Dukakis and Gene Harley. The Freshman squad was one of the largest in the past ten years. John Kasius was the leader of the Bobkitten runners as he registered three first places while close on his heels were Don Graves and Don Holstrom.

Although the varsity winter track team suffered decisive defeats at the hands of Northeastern, New Hampshire and Bowdoin, the squad as a whole showed considerable improvement over the course of the season, dropping its final meet by a narrow two point margin to Worcester Polytech, 46-44. In this final outing Nate Boone collected three firsts, in the 40-yard dash, the broad jump, and the 45-yard low hurdles. "Duke" Dukakis took top honors in the mile while Paul Walker and Dick Bellows tied for first in the high jump. Dick Westphal, Hod Record, Jack O'Brien, Cy Nearis and Gene Harley all added to the Garnet point totals throughout the year.

The frosh tracksters enjoyed a fine season, defeating Cheverus and MCI. Little Johnny Lawson was a constant winner in the dash and broad jump, setting a cage record on one occasion in the latter with a leap of 22:1½. Bob Goldsmith was undefeated in 1000 competition, turning in a brilliant 2:22 clocking in a triangular meet at Bowdoin. Bob Abbott was a steady winner in both the 300 and the 600, while John Kasius excelled in the mile. Other dependable point-getters were Don Holstrom, Bill Sullivan, Bob Goldberg, Bill Kerr, Russ Wheeler, Don Peck and John MacDuffie. The high spot of the season though was the second place the frosh mile relay team of Abbott, Kasius, Holstrom and Goldsmith gained in the BAA games.

Considering the large number of underclassmen on the varsity squad and the fine record compiled by the frosh thinclads, prospects are far brighter indeed for next year's tracksters.

And they're off!

The discus thrower

Baseball

This season may show the return of the State baseball title to Bates College. Due to weak pitching and hitting last year, the Garnet experienced a disastrous campaign. This year, however, could be a different story for the Pondmen, with only two positions, first base and right field, in question as the season neared its commencement.

"Ducky" for once had a wealth of pitching talent in newcomers Andy McAuliffe, George Brinkerhoff, Larry Quimby, Alan Rubin, "Buzz" Harris and Larry Lalond, and holdovers Dave Leach and Ted Coshnear. Leading candidate to fill graduated Norm Parent's shoes was burly Bud Porter. First base presented a problem to "Ducky," but he had a wide field from which to choose. Fred Douglas seemed set at the keystone sack while Shirley Hamel and Johnny Wettlaufer seemed fixtures at shortstop and third base respectively. Ralph Perry and Hod Record, both returning veterans, provided the bulwark of the outfield brigade.

Bates pulled up the curtain on the diamond sport April 15 in an exhibition affair with Colby. After tussles with Bowdoin and Tufts, Bates took to the road, meeting New Hampshire, Rhode Island and New England College on its glorified southern jaunt. Rounding out the list of scheduled games in order were Colby, Bowdoin, Colby again, a home and home series with Maine, Northeastern and then Bowdoin in the finale.

Bates showed great improvement in both the pitching and hitting departments this year. Southpaw Andy McAuliffe was touted as one of Maine's best, while George Brinkerhoff, who twirled for "Ducky" last summer, was highly rated by the Lewiston sportswriters. John Wettlaufer and Fred Douglas provided the Garnet with much added power at the plate. Porter, Perry, Record and Hamel were all looked upon to come through with strong offensive performances during the campaign.

The ball bounces funny sometimes, but excluding unforeseen developments, State Series time was expected to find Bates well marked in the win column. A State title would be hearty news indeed for campus enthusiasts!

The skiers under Coach Wait enjoyed one of their most successful seasons in years, downing Tufts in a dual meet and placing third in meets at Colby and Rumford. Key man for the skiers was Dom Casavant, a four event man, who, at Colby, was the outstanding individual performer in the slalom, downhill, cross country and jumping events. Russ Woodin was his steady, dependable self in jumping while Jack Greim proved a pleasant surprise in the same event. Howie Cotton, Ed Swain and Dave Sweeney were other reliable scorers for the Garnet.

Tennis

The tennis team under the able direction of Professor Buschmann faced a stiff slate this year. Initiating the season was a three game travelling date with Tufts, MIT and Boston College. Following an exhibition match with Colby, the netmen met Bowdoin, Colby and Maine in regular State Series play. Holdovers from last year's squad were Mike Stephanian, Bob Greene, and Bob LaPointe, while promising graduates from the Freshman ranks included George Cory, Mort Berkowitz, Walt Cushman and John Duffet.

Golf

Fore!

Bates bid likely to present strong golf club this spring. Twelve men reported for opening practice, indicative of an increased interest in the sport this year. Returning veterans from last year's outfit included Dave Green, the golfer's best scorer; Herb Bergdahl, Dana Jones and Steve Gilbert. After meeting Tufts and MIT away, the divot diggers returned to the Auburndale links to oppose Tufts, Colby and Maine. The State Meet this year was held at Augusta.

Intramurals

An impressive number of two hundred and fifteen male students availed themselves of the opportunity of participating in the first two sports offered in the intramural athletic program in the year of 1949-50, touch football and basketball. More participants boosted that total considerably with the institution of the new between-season bowling league and the spring softball activity.

This last fall saw the Off Campus-Sampsonville touch football combine walk off with top honors in the twelve game schedule. The teams were divided into two leagues, four teams per league, with each aggregation playing three games in its section.

A renewal of the Civil War was likened in the basketball set-up this season with Smith North, winners of the first round of play, meeting South, second half victors, in a playoff for the championship, and for the possession of the coveted emblem of the honor, The Horn. In what was probably the highlight of the hoop season, an elected team of Intramural All-Stars was defeated in a benefit tilt with the Varsity Reserves, 46-29, in an extra-scheduled game.

A new innovation was introduced this year in the form of an eight team bowling league. This was set up as sort of a carry-over sport while the elements cleared away enough to permit the start of the spring twi-light softball league. With the change of status, campus-wise, of Mitchell House, last year's softball champs, a new title holder was crowned from the anticipated eight competing dorms. It might be mentioned that a few toddering steps have been taken this year to promote inter-college intramurals, with the four Maine colleges being the core of the activity.

A word of appreciation and gratitude should be extended to this year's Intramural Senior Manager, Bob Wade, '50. Bob worked tirelessly to promote a smooth-running, interesting, and eventful intramural activity. Through the efforts of Bob, his assistants, Al Dunham, '51; Jack Batal, '52; and Bob Lennon, '53; Mr. Lux, the Student Council, and the student body as a whole, a very successful season of intramural play was enjoyed.

FAREWELL TO SPORTS

Women's Athletic Association

All Bates women have the distinction of belonging to one of the oldest campus groups. Not only is W. A. A. one of the first organizations, but it is also one of the most active. Ever since 1905 it has provided a wide variety of outdoor and indoor sports for all those wishing to participate.

The W. A. A. Board, composed of representatives elected from the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes, plans and supervises the various activities. Seasons and individual sports are directed by the season and sport managers.

The program is divided into five seasons. The fall features field hockey, golf, hiking, biking, and riding. In early winter the activities shift to bowling, square dancing, and badminton. Skiing and skating highlight the winter season, but for those preferring to remain indoors, there is basketball, ping-pong, and pool. The early spring program includes volleyball, tumbling, and bowling, while in the spring there is tennis, softball, and archery.

Special features on W. A. A.'s calendar are Freshman "Rec," Back-to-Bates Tea, Hallowe'en Party, "Betty Bates," and the annual Awards Night.

At Bates emphasis is placed on participation rather than skill. W. A. A. tries to present a program that can be enjoyed by beginners as well as experts, and in this respect has found much success.

Benjamin Bates Would Be Proud!

Just 100 years ago Benjamin Bates, for whom Bates College was named, founded the Bates Manufacturing Company. Today both college and company are renowned all over America, turning out some mighty fine alumni and some of the nation's best known cotton and rayon fabrics. Bates is a name of which we can all be proud.
